OLG Fair Weekend Highlight

Street booths plus a variety of concession stands will be included in Our Lady of the Gulf annual church fair this weekend on the grounds of Our Lady of the Gulf School.

An RCA Victor color television, now on display at Buffkin's, will be given away, highlighting the weekend's festivities.

Fish pond, petting pens, games and cake booths, grab bag, dart game and snack house are just a few of the activities planned for the fun of the fair-goers.

Rev. Michael Kelly announced that a complete list of fairworkers would be impossible, but that everyone concerned is working his hardest to make the fair a great event.

Work Starts on Subdivision on Central Avenue

Chantilly Terrace, a new 60-lot subdivision is under construction by Coastal Developers, Inc., on a 22 acre tract on Central Avenue between Ramona and Bay Oaks Drive, formerly owned by the late Dr. H. A. Elbridge.

General clearing and road construction have been in progress for five months with spells of bad weather preventing the final construction of necessary roads and ditches.

Norton Haas, Jr., supervisor of the project, said it is hoped to complete the road within two weeks so FHA approval can be secured.

Land on the Central Avenue side of this new street will be divided into four small courts, each including eight lot fronts. Haas said that they may sell some of the lots, but the original idea has been to build houses on all the lots.

Donald Shelton On Active Duty

Army Reserve Specialist Four Donald M. Shelton, whose wife, Rose, lives in Hattiesburg, is receiving two weeks of annual active duty training at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind. The training is scheduled to be concluded July 9.

Rotarians Here Of New Japan

Illustrations of the Japanese courtesy and politeness to foreign strangers came up several times at T. J. Carter's talk to Rotary yesterday. Carter was reporting on his recent trip to Japan for the Rotary International's convention at Tokyo.

In addition to some of the lighter aspects of the trip, the members were told of the modernity of rebuilt Tokyo, which claims 20 million inhabitants and "shows the traffic I sometimes thought it had at least that many". The people's industry, "everyone works six days a week and the kids go to school six days", and the business and industrial progress of Japan, "give Japan a few more years and see".

Elsewhere on this page is printed the report given the board of supervisors last week by a representative of the Mississippi State Department of Audit comparing income and expenses for the 1959 and 1960 fiscal years, which actually ended on Sept. 30, 1959, and Sept. 30, 1960, respectively.

This report is made from audits of the chancery clerk, sheriff and tax collector, circuit clerk (since Jan. 1960) and justices of the peace, and, without separating them, includes the county general fund, the road and bridge maintenance funds of the bears, the bridge and road sinking funds and the 16th section principal fund in its figures. Chancery Clerk Claiborne Ladner explained to us that he would have to wait until the complete printed report is received, about October, before he would know the specific breakdown and then would have to get additional information to answer some questions as to what, why and how.

Misleading as this interim report is, it does present a few questions for us to ponder and to which perhaps eventually we can answer. For that reason we are printing it with the above warning.

For instance, on line 16, All Other Non-Revenue Receipts, it shows an increase in fiscal 1960 over 1959 of almost $44,000, from $17,256.66 to $361,177.07. We suspect, but do not know, that this primarily represents federal and state funds spent on the new hospital. The same hospital probably accounts for the big expenditure increase in 1960 over 1959 in line 33, Other Construction and Permanent Improvements.

Line 44, Excess Receipts Over Expenditures, may well upset all of us since it shows a deficit of $167,142.59 for 1959 and $141,409.37 for 1960, while we know that the general and for 1961 is in a bad way with three months still to go. Check again into 1960, however, and you'll see that the county paid off $142,000 in bonds, which alone may mean that the county's overall value was increased by $390,63, in addition to the permanent improvements made and the machinery and equipment purchased.

It may be wise to read, even study, this report, but until a more detailed breakdown is available from the state and until other details can be investigated, don't let it cause you sleepless nights, although your taxes may have to be raised the mill they were lowered last year.

Our suggestion two weeks ago that some thought should be given to consolidation of Bay St. Louis and Waveland brought with several screams of anguish from Wavelanders. Turned out they weren't so much against a consolidation as they were against our proposed name, Bay-Waveland. "If the name were Waveland Bay, wouldn't be so bad and after all Waveland's older and now faster growing".

Idea still needs consideration.

Gone Days Damage $1,600 In 4-Car Crash On 90 Sunday

Two persons were injured when four cars collided about 10:45 a.m. Sunday on US 90 about one mile west of Bay St. Louis with resulting damages estimated to be about $1,600.

Highway Patrolman D.D. Czyzowich reported Mary Ann Lewis, LaPlace, La., and Gloria O'Brien, New Orleans, were driving a 1960 Ford and a 1960 General Motors for the two cars.

Observation after the mishap, they were passengers in a car driven by Cecil Lyons, also of LaPlace, which was towing a 1956 Chevrolet.

Operators of the other vehicles were Lucille Bierman, New Orleans, and Henri Gervais, Tampa, Fla.

Both of the Lyons car and the Bierman car had damages of $600 while the Gervais car had more $100 worth.

Knowledge Needed On Forest Cutting

It pays to know provisions of the Forest Harvesting Act before buying or selling any standing timber, Area Forester Marion Parker warns.

Some timber operators have learned about this law the hard way — by paying out some hard cash. A few have even faced a court injunction to bring compliance with the law.

Briefly, the law states that no one shall cut for commercial purposes any timber without leaving the required seed trees. In the case of pine at least four seed trees must be left on each acre. These must be at least four inches in diameter in place of the required seed trees.

Part of the law is to prevent timber lands from being denuded and made unproductive.

Actually, these seed tree standards require the minimum size and number of trees capable of producing a satisfactory stand of seedlings under ideal conditions.

Four inches or more in diameter may be left on each acre in place of the required seed trees.

In hardwood timber at least six seed trees ten inches or more in diameter must be left. These trees must be of the same species as those being cut. The owner may leave 100 or more trees at least four inches in diameter in place of the seed trees.

2. The state should provide technical assistance to counties in the modernization of assessments and assessing practices.

3. The state should develop a more comprehensive training program for assessors, giving instructions not only in conforming with existing laws, but also in improving methods. The annual course should last at least a week, with expenses for those attending paid by their respective counties.

4. The State Tax Commission should develop more comprehensive manuals and forms to guide the local assessor. Some excellent manuals have been prepared by nearby states. Detailed manuals can greatly assist the assessor in fixing values of real estate and various kinds of personal property.

5. The appeal procedure in assessments should be improved by providing for appeal to chancery rather than circuit courts. At present a taxpayer may protest his assessment to the board of supervisors. If he fails to get satisfaction there, he must go into circuit court. Most agree that this procedure is not entirely satisfactory, since the juries are usually homeowners who are reluctant to reduce assessments of commercial and industrial property for fear of what it might do to taxes on homes.

6. The legislature should authorize a comprehensive sales-ratio study of all counties to indicate if and where inequities exist. A sales-ratio study is one which shows the relation of the assessment to the selling price of selected properties. Several nearby states have made such studies.

The six conclusions reached in the report are:

1. Each tax assessor should have adequate records. If he has full information on property, in addition to listing and location, he is in a better position to make accurate evaluation of it. There are practical record systems available for such purposes.

2. The state should provide technical assistance to counties in the modernization of assessments and assessing practices.

3. The state should develop a more comprehensive training program for assessors, giving instructions not only in conforming with existing laws, but also in improving methods. The annual course should last at least a week, with expenses for those attending paid by their respective counties.

4. The State Tax Commission should develop more comprehensive manuals and forms to guide the local assessor. Some excellent manuals have been prepared by nearby states. Detailed manuals can greatly assist the assessor in fixing values of real estate and various kinds of personal property.

5. The appeal procedure in assessments should be improved by providing for appeal to chancery rather than circuit courts. At present a taxpayer may protest his assessment to the board of supervisors. If he fails to get satisfaction there, he must go into circuit court. Most agree that this procedure is not entirely satisfactory, since the juries are usually homeowners who are reluctant to reduce assessments of commercial and industrial property for fear of what it might do to taxes on homes.

6. The legislature should authorize a comprehensive sales-ratio study of all counties to indicate if and where inequities exist. A sales-ratio study is one which shows the relation of the assessment to the selling price of selected properties. Several nearby states have made such studies.

Sailors Arrested

A pair, Kenneth D. Gardner and John Koop, were apprehended by him after they tried to cross the Bay bridge without paying a toll. He had been on the trail of the two after a service station attendant at Fricke's on U. S. 90 reported the men had left without paying for gas they had gotten from him.

Police are checking on the owner of the 1961 Ford convertible.

Gardner and Koop waived preliminary hearing Tuesday before U. S. Commissioner Irene Herbert in Gulfport and were taken to Harrison County jail upon failure to post $1,000 bonds on charges of interstate transportation of a stolen car.

Their action coincided with that of the School Board in awarding a contract for construction of the building to W. M. Craig Co., of Gulfport, who entered a low bid of $36,318. Only other bid was from Cox-Hartlie Co., of New Orleans.

Little Paul Lutich, six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lutich, suffered a broken arm last Friday when he fell off the end of a parked truck and will have his arm in a cast for some time.

Social security benefits may now be paid to survivors of workers who died before Jan. 1, 1940, if the worker had at least a year and a half of social security work when he died, says Jerome Drane, district manager of the Social Security Administration.

Before the social security amendments of 1960, no monthly benefits were payable to the survivors of a worker who died before 1940.

Under the new law, if a worker had social security credit for at least a year and a half, benefits may now be payable to his widow (and dependent mother) if age 62 or older, to his dependent father at age 65, and to his disabled children if they became disabled before they reached age 18. This is true even if the family had collected the "lump sum" the time the family breadwinner died.

For further information regarding this new provision, get in touch with your social security office at 32nd Avenue and 11th Street, Gulfport.

Thomas On Arctic Bound Icebreaker

The Navy's 6,000-ton icebreaker USS Burton Island departed Seattle, Wash., July 5, on a two-month cruise into the Arctic region with August M. Thomas, Jr., seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomas, of Rt. 2, Box 356, Bay St. Louis, serving aboard.

The Burton Island is scheduled to conduct oceanographic studies and survey in the area between Point Barrow, Alaska, and the Mackenzie River Delta. In addition to independent research, the vessel will remain available to provide support and ice reconnaissance for shipping throughout the area before returning to Seattle in August.

Two counties, Hancock, Marengo and Jeff Davis, prepared to contribute one mill to the while Pearl River, which the institution also as a day leaves six mills. The institution is appearing before supervisors in these counties and their support. He cited Hancock Body the courses and tuition costs and the institution makes college training to many people who otherwise would have the opportunity. "This is an investment in our youth," he said.

J. G. Hubbard, Jr., board president, noted Hancock has upped its assessed valuation considerably and wondered if this would compensate for tax. Johnson replied there had been a little increase but it was not enough to meet rising costs of school operation.

Tax Assessor George Hitzel presented additional assessments to his land roles which board is considering in day-to-day sessions. A formal meeting is scheduled this morning was postponed until Friday.

Carmelite Novena held in Jackson

The grounds of the Carmelite Monastery at Jackson will be the scene of the 10th annual Carmelite Novena, July 8-16. Beginning at 7:30 o'clock each evening, the nine-day petition, consisting of hymns, prayers, litanies and Benediction, will be said for just and lasting peace in the world.

Among those assisting will be Rev. William D. O'Connor, M.I., of New Orleans; Rev. James McCough, chaplain of the Carmelite Monastery; Bob Hitzel, 1961 general chairman, Jackson; and Mrs. J. Ray Evans, choir director for the novena.

Accreditation...

(Cont. from Page 1.) An assistant attorney-general that hospital trustees have no power of appointment than a board of supervisors who are elected to one-year terms for such posts. Two case histories are cited in support.

Favre, who was on a trip to New Orleans when Pepperdine brought up the matter, agreed with the attorney-general. He said he didn't think the board with revolving members would appoint beyond the term a majority of the board but believed the association council's ruling was a private one and did not offer the protection of the attorney-general's office. Favre added he had solicited the appointment.

President T. T. Reboul, Jr., responded that he had come to the hospital for financial reasons for the first nine months of the current fiscal year. They showed net earnings at $139,526 and losses including government grants at $159,332,62 against disbursements of $156,513.07. The hospital, without grants, was $13,56 or $33,000 short for the year. Favre noted that without grants the hospital would run over $22,000 short.

A doctor of $6,637.42 was received and June patient earnings were listed at $16,945. Net for June was $15,155.06 in May. Last year's daily patient average was 10.6.

Theologue presented a fire education plan, copies of which will be attached to each employee's payroll check and the chief. He said his plans to have a full dress drill within a couple of weeks. The administrator also reported on the blowout system recommended for the water and said he is trying to have it installed locally.

Hospital hike...

(Cont. from Page 1.) Insurance man in a small business in providing uninterrupted care and various odd jobs. He said he was completely satisfied with the present service. He said he thought the service could be brought up to date. Some of the orderlies and Mrs. Graham was due to receive for her experience and knowledge but it was not the board.

School budget...

(Cont. from Page 1.) Fred Wagner, architect for the new industrial arts building, was recontacted on Bay High's completion and design to discuss his contract with W. M. Craig and Associates, who will construct the building. Antiques was selected as a unanimously chosen to act in behalf of the school board.

Miss Britsch told them she was chosen after answering an ad in a newspaper and was called to Jackson where she competed with 11 other finalists.

Her sponsor in the contest, Gordon Novel, is from New Orleans and so are the three judges who selected her for the state title. He noted he had trouble getting entrants to come to Jackson for the contest because of "freedom rider trouble."

So, sometime today Miss Britsch will learn her fate as the semi-finals begin tonight. Is she or isn't she?

Preparations Cited For School Opening

Preparations should begin now to get next fall's first graders ready for school. The Hancock County Health Department urges parents of youngsters starting school in the fall to make early arrangements for doctor's and dentist's examinations and that the youngsters have proper immunizations.

Dr. N. C. Knight, long-time medical director of the Mississippi School Health Service and health education director for the State Board of Health, announced that every child needs a birth certificate, a dental certificate, record of medical and dental examination, correction of physical defects, and immunizations against polio, diphtheria, tetanus and smallpox.

"By failure to correct existing defects that a medical examination may uncover, many parents unwittingly keep their child from achieving his or her maximum potential in the school situation," Dr. Knight declared.

The training period, June 22-31, will include practical application as well as classes in the local welfare office.

All students in the unit will be seniors in college next fall and the purpose of this program is to show them how the agency work is handled, enabling them to decide if this is the type of career they wish to pursue.

PADDLES ARE PRELIMINARY - Red Cross paddles are used to teach students rudiments of proper kicking.

Red Cross Swim Classes Get Bumper Crop of Kids

Let's learn to swim!

That call has had the sound of magic to the young people of Hancock County this summer and if the American Red Cross water safety program had about double the number of instructors available there'd probably be twice as many youngsters splashing in the water off Municipal Pier every morning.

More than 250 kids signed up for the two-week series which began in June and winds up tomorrow with 194 of them actually finishing out the course. Mrs. P. E. Porter, Jr., who is in charge, said conflicts with summer camps and vacation plans have been main causes of the dropouts, certainly not any wading interest of the children.

By and large, the young people take to water as do the ducks and under proper tutelage are learning rapidly the aquatic skills, Mrs. Porter reports. The only hitch encountered was in the first two weeks and has since been corrected. Some, she explained, said that they could swim and were put in the intermediate class but testing the program underway.

The Red Cross water safety program this summer includes a junior lifesaving course which started Monday at the Sidney Ball pool in Waveland with 16 enrolled. Ethel Chapman who accompanied Mrs. Porter to the aquatic school is handling that instruction.

Winding up the current program will be a water safety party Saturday night for the staff and senior lifesavers at Youngs, county home of Mr. and Mrs. Porter.

Mrs. Porter, who has been to the Red Cross aquatic school for the last two years, got the swimming program off the ground last summer when 79 children completed instruction. Off to a flying start this season there were 94 beginners who signed up for the first two weeks with 84 of them working the full time and 42 passing. There were 35 intermediates of which 22 took the full course and 16 passed. This two weeks there are 100 beginners and 37 intermediates enrolled.

While the rainy weather of the last week has hampered instruction to some extent, sea nettles were more of a detriment in the first two weeks, Mrs. Porter replied. P. E. Porter, when a number of top Red Cross officials are expected to appear.

But teaching water safety will be far from over for the season at that time. Mrs. Porter is already assembling plans to go into the rural sections of Hancock County in August and teach the farm people how to teach their children swimming. "We're losing so many children in the farm ponds, that has to be the next step," she explains.

Another plea has come from parents who have observed their youngsters in the beginners classes. They want a similar course for grown-ups who don't know how to swim. Maybe that will come later in the summer or will make the 1962 program even bigger and better than this year.

The win moved Coast Electric to within one-half game of fourth-place Krautky. The upset of Reinike by the KC's pushed the Dirt Diggers down into a second-place tie with Southern Reality.

Monday's scheduled games were cancelled because of rain.

Softball Play Slated July 23

By Kiln Squad

Plans are being made for a softball tournament at Kiln, Sunday, July 23, with several of the top teams in this area participating.

Kiln played in the Disabled American Veterans softball tournament in Bay St. Louis Sunday and were defeated in the first round 8-3 by V & M Grocery of Pass Christian. The tournament, however, later had to be cancelled because of the rain.

Kiln defeated the Old Stars 8-3 last week in Bay St. Louis Monday. Kiln will go up against the Knights of Columbus and Wednesday they face Southern Reality, both in Bay St. Louis.

No games were played last week by the Kiln entry in the Pass Christian Night League.

Tonight they meet Poupart Constables and Tuesday night they play Chez Joey in Pass Christian.

Pascagoula's Legion Juniors Swamp Bay

Rapping 18 base hits, Pascagoula's American Legion junior baseball team scored a 19-0 triumph over Bay St. Louis Friday at St. Stanislaus Stadium.

Charles Kitchen pitched Pascagoula to their one-sided victory and also led his team at bat, pounding two home runs and two doubles in four trips to the plate. Curtis Mathews went the distance on the mound for the locals and was charged with the loss.

The local club was able to get only two hits of Kilchens, singles by catcher Leroy Luke and pitcher Mathews.

Johnson Denied
Habeas Writ

Court Judge Leslie B. Green presided at a hearing in Wiggins denied Carl Johnson's appeal to have set a writ of habeas corpus on Johnson's claim that his civil rights had been violated.

Johnson was sentenced here in March to six months in county jail and fined $500 for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and six months and $200 for running a house of prostitution. He was arrested along with his wife, Mary, Feb. 10.

Sheriff Gerald V. Price noted Johnson had claimed that his arrest was illegal but the sheriff contended it was not. Johnson is conducting his own defense.

Nature went on a rainy weekend, acting vicious Saturday evening, small rain continuing Sunday, treated to the familiar waterspout. The winds ranging in velocities. A spokesman of the Waveland Yacht Club said a boat on a trailer was driven ashore and a number damaged by the heavy surf, destroying the aquaill.

Boats were kept busy removing equipment by lightning. Many damages were reported to local insurance companies.

Hurricane came! Roderick of St. Stanislaus College weather station, although he hasn't seen the rainfall in the past 24 hours, he imagined it was in excess of four inches over the last 24 hours.

Polly

At Waveland

Menacing skies moisture, mugginess and mosquitoes combined to send just about everyone inside over the weekend. A sudden really nasty squall blew up Saturday morning boats about like bits of paper - yet all the inclemencies couldn't spoil the fun for the many vacationers who came for the fourth and remained. . . .there were parties galore - lobster boils, clam bakes, crab boils, turtle suppers and barbeques. But before we get up-to-date we must belatedly mention a few festivities that took place last weekend and we were unable to report or due to the holiday rush.

More About the Fourth

A gay time was had at Gerstner's Villa. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerstner entertained Robert Ulg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ulg, Jr., and their three sons. Mrs. Ulg's sister, Mrs. Cecilia Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Gerstner, Lionel, Jr., and Janice. On Monday night Mrs. Lionel Gerstner, Mr. Gerstner and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerstner dined at Lenfand's. It was Mrs. Lionel's first real outing since undergoing major surgery. She'll complete her period of recuperation in Clermont Harbor.

Another Fourth of July semi-family reunion was enjoyed at the Dan Sellen-Baldwin Wilday home on Central Ave. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Haas of Slidell, La., Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Haas and daughters, Mrs. Duncan Hayes and the Horthlys. Ord May, Connie and Mary Lou.

Louise and Joe Wymer also did a bit of entertaining over the long holiday weekend. . . .Be and George Georgi were their dinner guests for shrimp salad and stuffed crepes on Friday - Joe's sister, Jeanne and husband Fred and family enjoyed stuffed flounder and shrimp remoulade with the Wymers on Sunday.

Happy birthday wishes in advance go to Josie (Mrs. Clarence) Herbig who'll celebrate Saturday by attending the dance at the parish hall - Clarence's Band will furnish the music. . . .admission will be $1.50 per - tickets may be purchased by calling Henry Deville at HO-7-5173 or Jimmy Lagasue, HO-7-4811 or at the door.

Committees are busy making preparations for St. Clare's annual fair to be held on Aug. 5. - Elaine Davis is in charge of the white elephant booth and asks that one and all search closets (lockers, if you prefer) and call her to pick up any donations. Her phone number is HO-6-6192.

Victorians Galore

More summer residents enjoying their vacation homes include the Edward Carreres, the Richard Carreres, the W. J. Adams, the A. J. Balogna, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Maggio, Mrs. Annette Lais, Wanda and Jimmy Frey and four children, the Nicholson Avenue Cabes, the C. M. Hutchersons who presently are entertaining their son and family, the Sandy St. Montagners, the Fred Listers, Clarence and Josie Herbig, the Claude Dukes, the Charles Spencers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Givianis and children, Diane and Franchise, in fact just about everyone seems to be here!

Congratulations to Kirby (Mrs. Otto) Mollere. She was recently elected first vice-president of the Mississippi Dental Assn. women's auxiliary.

Get well wishes to Dot (Mrs. John) Weathers - so glad to hear that she's making a rapid recovery after surgery in Hancock General; to Betty Rose, who entered Gulfport Memorial Sunday and was operated on Tuesday; to Mrs. Gordon Gleim who suffered a broken right arm in a fall at her home Friday morning; to Mamie Giansolli who spent a week in the local hospital submitting to tests and the like - she feels much better and the MDs found nothing serious wrong, fortunately; to Slim Jenkins, he's recovering from a broken rib received in a fall from a scaffold; to Renz Bermond who is still hospitalized.

About the Diaper Set

Little Carlos Lozano III arrived on July 3rd at Baptist Hospital, most appropriately on Lois and Carlos' wedding anniversary - after five daughters don't you just know Carlos is simply bursting with pride? Doris and Henry White, frequent Waveland visitors, who are expecting their latest arrival momentarily, have moved into a lovely new home in Lake Vista. Lester Haverty just can't wait to see his first granddaughter, little Leslie - she'll be in Waveland in less than two weeks now. New papa, Harry Lynch reports that Alice Louise is such a good baby one would hardly know she is in the house. Ann and Henry Deville say that little Gary remains a joy - crying only when he's hungry.

The Waveland Bakery Stapletons spend what spare time they can find fishing. . . .Mr. Stapleton's latest masterpiece was the perfect replica of the new Merchants drive-in branch - it was really something to see and we hear that it was just as good to eat!

Sort of late but goodbye anyway to Dan and Bob O'Donnell - they have left us for the Crescent City.

Jenny (Mrs. Randolph) Bourgeois, really had a ball on her extended trip to visit Capt. Randolph, Jr., and family in Eatontown, N. J. She was away for four months and took in all the sights in the big city of New York. . . .visited television studios, shopped and the whole family took a trip to visit Mrs. Bourgeois, Jr.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sweger in Lima, Ohio.

Good to see the O'Neills, Gladys and Harry and the Thibodeaus, Sophie and Warren in our locale once more - Gladys is feeling much more like herself again. . . .she is recuperating from a recent operation.

Visiting Belle and Cleme Penrose over the Fourth weekend was her sister Joelle Lawrence.

Last week's mystery was solved - Jane Mollere's beach is resting safely in Elwood Memorial Park. . . .still don't know about all those trading stamps.

Complaint Dept.

Mrs. Sarah Macaluse Thompson wants to know WHEN there will be a light installed near her home? There are three in the proceeding block of Surf but once the sun sets, crystal darkness prevails around #175.

Brewster Mollere has switched bobbies once more - he's smoking hams and chicken. . . .his mushrooms must have been mushrooms. . . .all of the children still look healthy! He plans to discover if our local clowns are still as his next entertainment - didn't have the heart to tell who will be the guinea pig.

Our Wavelandites

Lots of people floundering each night but we have tangible proof that our old manager, Elmo Cuevas, has been successful. The Sennzeaus, Doris, Jack, Cheryl and Jackie enjoyed a deep sea fishing trip aboard a lovely yacht last weekend - Cheryl was the champion angler coming up with a 20 lb. king mackerel.

Mrs. Winthrop Baker is busy, busy these days - she's the chairman of the Elwood Park memorial fund which is to benefit from the proceeds of the big rodeo to be held at the Lazy Y Arena July 20-21. The committee has large goals which include bleachers, stadium lights and definitely playground and athletic equipment for local children.

Sympathy is extended to Paul Mollere and family - his brother Fred Estimato

Harbor Happenings

By RAE COPE

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Berger, daughter Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kassel of New Orleans were weekend guests of Mrs. Ida Jourdan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Theriot, Jr., children Suzanne, Jo Anne, Pierre and Dahlie are occupying their cottage on Bordages St. along with C. P. Theriot. Their guests over the long holidays were Mr. and Mrs. L. Linschmidt and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dumestre and son Armand, Jr., and Mrs. Alice De Clive, all of New Orleans.

Welcome to new citizens Mr. and Mrs. Emilie Erskine, sons Emile, III, and Kenneth, who recently purchased one of the Mouleous cottages on Bordages St. They lay emphasis on the statement that "this is NOT a summer home." They expect to stay here as much as Mr. Erskine's business in New Orleans will permit. Alphonse and Catherine Shafter are glass enclosing their large screened porch with a number of windows.

Nice Nameplate

Dieu Domme (or God Given) is that of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dupuit on Forest Street. They had almost despaired finding a suitable place in which to spend their Golden Years when they found the perfect one here in Clermont. They bought it three years ago and moved over from New Orleans and still love it.

Lilley to little Alice Louise, sixth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch born at Hancock General July 2 - also to little Leslie Ann, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Haverty, Jr., born Wednesday last in New Orleans.

That 26 inch long speckle Russell Gruin speared out in front of their place a week or so ago, really deserves five more inches added to its girth to make it 14 inches in circumference.

Mrs. Ruth Miller is over from New Orleans spending a few days at Miller's Villa in Lakeshore. She was a dinner guest of Rosemary Hungate or Rosie's Retreat Sunday along with Mary and Joe Rouscous.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Dowd are spending a great deal of time at their cottage on Forest Street. Their grounds are so well kept there isn't a stray pine needle or cone to mar the velvety smoothness of its appearance. Even the drainage ditch bordering the street is the cleanest in town.

Ann Carbajal's beautiful sunnan got that way from spending several days a week out on her pier.

Happy Birthday

Baked cake and candles to birthday celebrants during July: Ann Carbajal on the 9th, Claire Schexnayder on the 12th, Mrs. George Ramel the 13th.

Mrs. Albert Rieker and sister, Miss Chick Goodie, set out Monday morning with two other young ladies to spend their vacations in Nacelle.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Horatio Lodner, of Lakeshore, whose husband passed away of a heart attack early Tuesday morning at Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Hobbies

Rose Richmond has three hobbies - stamps, ceramics and bird watching. . . .Beverly Dibell has two hobbies - sewing and all kinds of lovely things from tin cans - more about that later, however.

St. Clare's Fair Prizes Announced

Three persons will be lucky winners of grand prizes at St. Clare's Church annual fair set for Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 5-6.

Mallere Realty Co. has donated a building lot for first prize while the second and third prizes are an air conditioner and four automobile tires given by Bob's and Toomey's service stations.

Ed LeVasseur, general chairman, and committee chairmen will be announced as soon as preliminary plans are completed.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY

The rash of out-of-state license plates, appearing more numerous than ever this season - and the tourists which naturally fill the vehicles in the uniform - drew him (Larry) Johnson and of course camera in our hand, postcards in the other - and a man leading two beautiful dogs, each bear upon investigating trees several yards apart - the sound of wind, waves and rain catching on one slope - slightly irritating in the daytime. . . .

Marriage Licenses

Two marriage licenses of local interest issued by Circuit Clerk Lamar Odis the past week were to James P. Asher, Bay St. Louis, and Norma L. Bliss Logtown, and Conley L. Carver and Jacqueline Schulteis, both of Gadsden.

Miss Ladner, Mr. Palmer Pledge Vows

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Marie Ladner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Estus Ladner of Picayune, to Mr. Eddie Joe Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Palmer of Caesar community was solemnized June 7 at Crane Creek Baptist church with Rev. N. G. Price officiating.

The bride was lovely in a dress of white lace over yellow taffeta. The dress was fashioned with full skirt and the bodice featured a round neck and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore white accessories.

Miss Judith Shaw attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a pastel blue and white sheath with white accessories. Mr. Joe Roger Harrel served as best man.

For traveling the bride chose a blue and white dress fashioned with full skirt and white accessories. After a brief honeymoon the couple will reside on the Gulf Coast.

Escorted by her father, the bride was attired in a Grecian style gown of white silk chiffon over taffeta. A wide contour belt of satin completed the gown creating the soft gathered Grecian effect. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a flat bow of chiffon; white satin pumps and long white satin gloves completed her attire and she carried a bouquet of fleur d'amour centered with a yellow throated orchid. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, gift from the groom.

Miss Barbara Hanson of Tupelo was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale yellow peau de soie gown fashioned with sweetheart neckline and an extremely full skirt accented with panels of embroidered lace. A marching headpiece of illusion and a nosegay of yellow sweetheart roses completed her ensemble.

Attending the groom was Lee Carnes of Greenwood, as best man. Ushers were Kenneth Koch, of Hattiesburg, brother-in-law of the groom; Bill Morgan, brother of the bride, and Paul Kent Bramlett of Tupelo.

Mrs. Morgan wore a silk sheath of ice blue with lace bodice, matching accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids. The mother of the groom was in a lilac sheath of peau de soie with lace bodice and matching accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

When the couple left for their wedding trip the bride was wearing a lilac silk costume complimented by matching accessories.

Upon their return they will reside in Hattiesburg where the groom is a member of the faculty of Mississippi Southern College.

Rev. August Holden, pastor, will share the pulpit with featured speaker, Rev. Houston Stringer.

Angling With Jimmy onsoon Monotony

BY GIAMETTA

Rain, rain and more rain was the reason for so few catches reported, but those few anglers who fought their way through squalls and downpours were rewarded.

Spanish mackerel are starting to come in and can be caught on the railroad bridge and off some far out reefs. Big mackerel are usually caught on silver spoons. In our area the mackerel is one of the fightingest fish in the Bay.

Speckled trout fishing is at its best and they are being caught by about any method, lures, dead or live bait.

Green trout and perch are picking up, but the rain and squalls have had over the weekend didn't help the bass any.

There have been plenty of flounders and soft crabs out in the Bay, the last couple of nights, haven't had any report and wondering whether people are just wasting or killing time or getting the fish. On the seawall people have been hauling flounders.

on Shows Pop

Jimmy Laroux and son Mike went out by the train bridge last Sunday morning and raked up on the speckles. They were using shrimp. You know the likely story where father shows up son in this case Mike showed up Pop by catching more than half of fish.

Hills Cuevas, an old ace at flounder catching says that he caught his ones off the seawall early Saturday morning. He uses a special rig that is guaranteed to catch those big fellows. Use a small piece of cut croaker and hook it about three inches from the sinker then drag it on the bottom, pulling it up and down; until you feel the yank as if you were hung on the bottom.

Bill Pinson of Bill's Fishing Camp says things are picking up but down his way and he has lots of live bait for those who think they might like to do some fishing.

asty At Least

Raul Telbard says he and Frank Neicase went up Bayou La in last week and caught a nice mess of green trout. Adding he said that they were nothing to brag about but they were good eating.

George Wedemeyer and his father-in-law, J. O. Ezell, went up the Pearl River around Pole Cat Bend and caught 22 nice specks ranging from two to four pounds. George also caught a 54-pound drum which ruined the fishing for the rest of the day.

Owen Heitzman speared 34 nice size flounders out in front of the house, and caught a few soft crabs.

Rita Blaize also spearing flounders got the two biggest ones for her life, they weighed in at about three pounds.

Julian Lorenzen went out to Grassy Point early Saturday before all the squalls and caught about a bushel of small red fish and some crabs. He hooked something that straightened out the ring on a swiveler but unfortunately didn't get to look at it.

The statewide turkey kill for 1961 showed an increase of almost 400 birds over that of 1960. Reports show a total kill of 1,697 as compared to 1,541 for last year. Based on these figures, Bolivar County replaced Amite as the top county with a kill of 31 turkeys. Amite was second with 200.

Hamilton Seeks Sears Victory

Bob Hamilton, Jr., travels to Biloxi this weekend to sail in the district quarterfinals of the Sears Cup eliminations.

Hamilton, representing Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, will have only one rival, from Biloxi. There will be four races with the sailors flipping a coin before the first and third races to determine which of the two boats he will use, and the two will swap boats for the second and fourth races. If each sailor wins two of the four races, a fifth will be staged to determine a winner.

Hamilton and his opponent will sail in Lido-14 boats for this series. Hamilton advanced to the quarterfinals from the Western District eliminations in New Orleans where fish boats were used.

The winner of the event in Biloxi will go to St. Petersburg, Fla., later in the summer. This time boats will be used in St. Petersburg.

Logtown Drops July 4 Turney

Pearl River defeated Logtown 9-8 last Tuesday to win the Logtown Turney of July 4th. The two teams reached the finals by defeating Pearlington and Santa Rose in first round games. It was a four-team tournament.

This Sunday, members of the Pearl River Softball League will hold a tournament at Union. The nine teams scheduled to participate are Logtown, Smity's Cafe, Nicholson, Picayune Independents, Pearl River, Santa Rose, Bienville, Union and Pearlington. A bracket for the tournament has not been drawn up as yet.

On Bridge Exercise

Army Specialist Four Jerrill M. Martindale, 24, son of Mrs. W. A. Adcox of Picayune, recently participated with other personnel from Headquarters of the 2nd Division's 36th Infantry in the construction of a bridge across the Danube river in Germany.
